Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 14 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 14 and 15, "...performing increasing..." (lines 2, respectively) appears not complete. It is not readily understood as to what increase is being performed. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1 – 13 and 16 - 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Chubb et al. (US 6,593,849 B2).

The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Regarding claims 1, 2, 5, 6 - 13, and 16, Chubb et al. teaches operating a control system for an automotive vehicle (10; fig. 1) comprising determining a relative roll angle (col. 4: 60 – col. 5: 2 at least); initiating a wheel departure angle determination when the angle reaches a threshold and controlling a safety system (using item 18) in response to the wheel departure angle (see fig. 3; note col. 5: 52 – 62 at least); Chubb further teaches determining the vehicle is in a transition (when the vehicle wheel is detected as lifted; note abstract at least); determining a roll signal (by way of item 34 in fig. 1); determining a double wheel lift (as illustrated in fig. 1, two of the wheels are elevated; note col. 2: 44 – 46 at least); applying a brake pressure to prevent rollover when the vehicle is bouncing (col. 1: 22 – 26; col. 2: 59 – 63; and col. 3: 40 – 46 at least).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 14 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chubb et al. ('849 B2) as applied to claim 13 above.

Applicants have not made clear as to what is specifically being claimed. The limitations of claims 14 and 15 are met when Chubb et al. is considered as a whole and would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention because Chubb does teach all of the features that are necessary to carry out the increase performance. Overall, Chubb performs equally well.
